SCCOMBE WINS IN CANTON RACE

JO Fails In Announced Plans To "Seize Reins" In Detroit

AKRON'S nip and tuck mayoral battle ended today with County Democratic Chairman J. Earl Cox leading the election of Mayor D. Schroy, Republican incumbent, over G. L. Patterson, CIO nominee, who received CIO support through the Labor Non-Union League.

Outcome of the race, one of the fiercest mayoral fights in the state was not apparent until more than one-half of the city's 226 precincts had been tabulated. Returns from 180 precincts gave Schroy 34,879 votes and Patterson, 28,950.

At Canton, a focal point in the steel strike last summer, another candidate who had CIO support, Merrill D. Smith, Democrat, went down to defeat with the reelection of Mayor James Seccombe, Republican incumbent.

Concedes Election

Smith, until recently a political unknown, conceded the election of Mayor Seccombe.

"Apparently a majority of those who voted have a preference for my opponent," Smith said in a statement.

Ally Is Defeated In Alliance Vote

ALLIANCE, Nov. 3.—Guy Allen, Alliance's blind mayor, was defeated for a third term here yesterday by Republican Floyd Sem, who polled 2,583 votes to Allen's 1,397.

A third mayoralty candidate, Paul Ramsey, Independent, polled 1,100 votes.

"I hope that our present system of politics will always remain as the will of the majority will continue to be expressed through the ballot box."

Official complete returns from 126 precincts in Canton gave Sem 11,246 votes and Mayor Seccombe 24,061.

Throughout his campaign, Seccombe had stood on his record of closing the city's budget deficit, balancing the city's budget, and his main attacks against the mayor had been on his handling of the Republic Steel strike situation.

Labor ranks in both Canton and Akron are dominated by the CIO, though the rubber workers in the "Rubber Capital" and steel workers in the industrial center 20 miles north.

Schroy campaigned on his record of arbitrating strikes and leading the city out of financial chaos.

The Democratic leaders openly backed Schroy over the Democratic candidate.

Patterson had upbraided Schroy for using police to keep a fishing plant open during a CIO strike.

Democrat Defeats Greenawalt, In Quest of Third Term

EAST LIVERPOOL, Nov. 3.—Leo Copenhaver, a Democrat and newcomer in politics here, upset O. E. Greenawalt, Republican, in the mayoralty battle here Tuesday.

Copenhaver, who is a grocer, beat Greenawalt, seeking a third term, in a close vote, 3,625 to 3,303.

"Pottery city" voters voted their approval, 3,201 to 2,732, of the firemen's levy, needed for department maintenance.

However, the school bond issue for a new Junior High school in the East End was defeated. The measure, needing a 65 per cent majority vote, received 4,518, with 2,617 against it.

Municipal Judge Frank Grosshans won easily over Atty Harry Brokaw, 4,131 to 2,610.

The voters picked Carroll P. Lynch (R) for city solicitor, over Samuel Chertoff, Democrat.

Clyde V. Hall (R) was elected city treasurer, defeating Frank Duffy (D), 4,100 to 2,421. Two Democrats, seeking one Republican were elected to the councilmen-at-large posts, Arthur Bailey (D), Charles Dietz (D) and O. J. Herington (R) being the winners.

The ward councilmen include: Bert Goodballet (D), First ward; Clyde Skidmore (R), Second; James Welch (R) Third, and Homer Amos (R) Fourth. Goodballet defeated Conley, a Republican (D); Welch beat McGowan (D); Amos edged out Connelly (D).

LEST WE FORGET!

Muck-raking political propaganda reared its ugly head in an eleven-hour attack on the city administration to mar an otherwise clean campaign brought to a close by the municipal election Tuesday.

"Lest We Forget" was the caption of a handbill, printed in another city and "issued by the Salem Democratic Central Committee," which sought to undermine the mayor and his administration by its insidious statements and unanswered questions.

So unfair and malicious was the crudely-prepared pamphlet that many leading Democrats of the city rushed madly about Tuesday to deny all knowledge of the authorship and to apologize for its appearance.

Denunciations came from Democrats as well as Republicans, but no one stooped to the level of the perpetrators by attempting to answer the ridiculous statements. Instead, the voters quietly voiced their disapproval at the polls by electing a Republican ticket complete with the exception of one ward councilman.

This "Lest We Forget" pamphlet offered Salem voters ample evidence of one of the extremes to which irresponsible leadership will go at times when it can develop no logical excuse for trying to dislodge an administration with a record of accomplishment that has won popular approval.

"Lest We Forget" now becomes the slogan of right-thinking people in their determination to stamp out insidious propaganda by casting into political oblivion any and all responsible for its preparation and distribution.

MR. SULLIVAN'S SECRETARY

In a simple example for a complex subject, Mark Sullivan of the New York Herald-Tribune, has been tracing the fate of his $35 a week secretary's old age benefit payments. Walter Lippmann has taken up the same young lady's case in his syndicated column.

They find that the money she pays is being used for current operating expenses of the government. The security she is buying consists of IOUs deposited by the treasury in the old age benefit fund. In effect, she is paying a weekly income tax.

When her pension is due, it will be paid from the proceeds of more taxation. The government is under contract to repay, with interest, the money it has collected from her. That will be done by means of more taxes in the future.

This system has been a puzzler ever since the social security law was passed. It has been pointed out many times that the scheme's effect is to make the social security board a handy fat boy for government spenders, who exchange IOUs for cash.

Mr. Sullivan merely has dramatized the plan at a time when millions of Americans, having paid their money for almost a year, are inclined to think about what happened to it. The fact is, it has been used, about a billion dollars in all, to pay current expenses.

The social security advisory council meets this week in Washington to discuss the matter. Perhaps it is ready to face the fact that Mr. Sullivan's secretary has a legitimate right to wonder what the difference is between her weekly income tax and an annual income tax. Both are used to pay running expenses, but she is expected to believe that her tax is going to be returned with interest some day and isn't, therefore, a tax at all.

The Detroit U. A. W. has moved into a $17,000-a-year office. Down in Washington John L. Lewis moves into one of the historic Colonial homes, after buying the University Club for headquarters. All paid for by dues which the workmen hand over.—Detroit Free Press.

If it was ever intended that a man should carry his pocketbook near his heart, the matter was attended to later, when trousers were invented.—Jack Warwick.

A Utah judge ascribes 80 per cent of motor accidents to the "Three H's—hooch, haste and hugging." And they are encouraged by another "H"—hesitancy of courts to revoke drivers' licenses.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Japan says the disturbance in China isn't war. It's peace, it's a kind that passeth all understanding.—Washington Post.

THE STARS SAY:

For Thursday, November 4

By mutual as well as lunar aspects, this day will be memorable for very important events, possibly following the stagnation, crystallization, frustration and disappointment of current events. This rather drastic activity will tend to place the fortunes on a stable basis. It will involve hard work, wise judgment and probably radical change, all justifiable.

If This is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of very important events, with old conditions and stagnations wiped away to make way for stable and dependable fortunes and sound achievements. But move cautiously, work industriously, confer with elders and beware of litigation.

A child born on this day may be deep, studious, dependable and industrious, but beset by urges for change, adventure and many hazardous experiences that may enlarge its prestige and probably bring it into the public eye.

O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—May and December romances in New York are acquiring a stability the younger folk miff. While the latter splatter the news columns with dashes to Reno, Youth and Age are seen everywhere fairly beaming a marital happiness.

One of the season's romantic stressings of the disparity of ages was the wedding of Ed Wynn and Frieda Mierse. She is the tall and stately show-girl type and was for several seasons in the Follies and Wynn's theatrical enterprises. Wynn is 20 years the senior of his bride.

They sailed away on his yacht as happy as a pair of love birds and returned to reside in the fashionable Park avenue section. George Blumenthal, the art collector, married a lady many years his junior and they are very happy. The same is true of the Sam Goldwyns.

The romance of Jimmy Walker and Betty Compton has, despite all predictions, been idyllic. And the millionaire Jules Brulatour and the much younger Hope Hampton are always together cooling like turtle doves. And that applies also to the Nicholas Schencks.

Sublime satire: The biggest chuckle in the play in which George M. Cohan impersonates the president is during a cabinet meeting. The president suddenly turns to his attorney general and barks: "Cummings, take a law!"

Upper Park avenue is to have a deluxe cheese shop, a miniature Taj Mahal dealing only in various brands of cheese, domestic and foreign. For the past few years the metropolis has been showing a growing cheese consciousness. In the finer restaurants the displays on the portable tables are works of art. Many eating places, Holland fashion, also list cheese on breakfast menus. One of the publishing houses is readying a book to appeal solely to the cheese connoisseurs. Bruno Lessing is an expert cheesist.

Three havens for the stay-outs are Reuben's, Lindy's and Dave's Blue Room. They are the last stops in a night on the loose and where the roysterers fortify themselves with ham and eggs, onion soup or steaming bowls of chili. Everybody is usually in a mellow mood when they show up around 3 a. m. and life goes along like a song. If there is a flare up of temper it doesn't last long. The participants either wind up in tears or swing out in a waltz.

The widely exploited "No. 21," incidentally, has decided to remain open Sunday chiefly to serve what it calls a "hang-over breakfast"—a menu calculated to startle the jaded appetite into accepting a few tidbits. The most famous of the pick-me-up breakfasts used to be served at Murray's on West 42nd street and was said to be the creation of the actor, John Mason. It consisted first of chilled orange-juice with a soupcon of brandy, then two raw eggs doctored up with Worcestershire sauce and dashes of paprika, then—of all things—marinated herring. It was a favorite of Nat Goodwin, Wilton Lackaye and DeWolf Hopper when the going had been rough.

I am told that gentlemen who have had bad nights no longer resort to the ancient formula, "a bit of the hair of the dog that bit them." Nowadays they depend mostly on bromides but sometimes "a bust in the arm," a needed drug, to carry them through the distress of a morning after. But in the Manny Chappelle days they knew that the wine agent kept open house at Rector's Sunday morning, where all the bloods of the town were welcome. Manny's recipe was a chilled bottle of champagne and heavily spiced raw oysters. In extreme cases he suggested an old-fashioned with a few drops of absinthe. And in no time at all he had everybody singing—and buying wine for all comers, which was, after all, the big idea.

One of the most amusing remarks I ever heard was from the mumbling lips of a hang-over. It was in the men's bar at the Ritz in Paris one sunny Easter morning when the whole city was on promenade. Save for myself and white aproned Frank and a figure sprawled over a table asleep, the bar was deserted. Finally the figure, who had missed the boat, cast a bleary look around and sighed: "Easter, and not an egg in the house!" And tumbled back to his nap.

Functional and Chronic Disorders
HAVE YOU wondered what the doctor means, when he refers to one disorder as a "functional" ailment, and another as an "organic" ailment?

Dr. Copeland

There is a great deal of misunderstanding regarding these terms. Many a mother has been confused because she does not quite know the difference between a functional and an organic disturbance, and an organic disturbance, particularly when one or the other term is applied to a heart murmur. In reality, a functional disturbance is a temporary and passing thing, like the sputtering of an automobile caused by bad gasoline. It is not caused by any defect in the machinery and is of no lasting consequence.

Organic Ailment

An organic disturbance is one caused by a structural change in the organs or other parts of the body. For example, an organic murmur of the heart is produced by such change as usually follows some infectious disease which has produced trouble in the lining of the heart. Some form of organic disturbance is a common complication of acute rheumatic fever, scarlet fever and pneumonia.

In the various nervous conditions it is quite the rule that victims suffer from certain complaints which the doctors regard as purely functional disturbances. They are disorders that are temporary and soon disappear without leaving scars or other evidence that they ever existed.

It is not unusual in cases of marked emotional disturbance that there is a complaint of pain in various parts of the body. The nerves supplying the lining of the intestines or stomach may be involved, with disturbance of appetite, digestion and elimination. These symptoms do not indicate organic changes; they are purely functional in their nature.

Heart Disorders

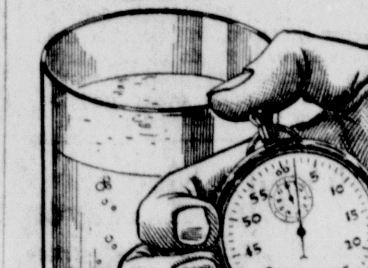

The person who labors under severe emotional strain, constant fear and excessive fatigue often suffers from a rapidly beating heart. At times the heart may actually skip a beat out of five or six. It gives the victim a peculiar jarring sensation. This trouble is purely functional. As soon as the sufferer rests and obtains adequate relaxation, the disturbing symptoms quickly disappear.

In contrast to these trivial ailments are certain progressive and serious heart disorders which may have similar symptoms. But, when the cause is an organic change, the distress is little improved by rest and relaxation. Such cases require careful medical treatment.

It is always best to discuss these matters with your doctor. Never resort to self-medication or depend on the advice of a well-meaning friend. What may appear as a serious disturbance to you may be a mild disorder. Let your doctor determine the real nature of your complaint.

Answers to Health Queries
R. B. Q.—Will you please answer the following two questions regarding a tubercular patient. The case is supposed to be arrested. If the patient's temperature rises to 99.2 occasionally, does that signify that the disease is still active and spreading? Would it be harmful for the patient to remain up as long as his temperature does not rise above 99?
A.—It would depend upon the location of the tubercles.

THE REASON HEADACHES ARE RELIEVED SO FAST

THE REASON BAYER ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST
Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a tumbler of water.
By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating.
This speed of disintegration enables genuine BAYER Aspirin tablets to start "taking hold" of headache and similar pain a few minutes after taking.

All people who suffer occasionally from headaches ought to know this way to quick relief.

At the first sign of such pain, take two Bayer Aspirin tablets with a half glass of water. Sometimes if the pain is more severe, another dose is necessary later, according to directions.

If headaches keep coming back we advise you to see your own physician. He will look for the cause in order to correct it.

The price now is only 15¢ for twelve tablets or two full dozen for 25 cents—virtually, only a cent apiece.

completely in its avowed aim to "seize the reins of government in Detroit," virtually complete election returns showed today.
The CIO candidate for mayor led the victorious Richard W.
Reading by 105,000 votes, while its Republican candidate for the city council fell nearly 23,000 short of election.
Returns from 914 of the 918 precincts in yesterday's non-partisan election gave Reading, "conservative" candidate, endorsed by the American Federation of Labor,
30,909 votes to 153,766 for Patrick
O'Brien, the CIO standard-bearer.
Six incumbent councilmen who sought re-election led the nine who were victorious. They, like Reading, were supported by the local branch of the AFL. The three who won did not figure in the labor fight for political success in the motor capital's government.
The lowest of the nine had 22,881 votes more than Maurice Sugar, mayor for the United Automobile Workers of America, CIO affiliate, who stood tenth. Richard T.
Schneider, assistant international president of the union, was seventh.
The three other CIO councilmen contestants, all UAW affiliates, placed 13, 14 and 15.
The political rivalry of the AFL and CIO was confined to the mayor and the council.

LA GUARDIA WINS OVER TAMMANY

Carries Virtually Entire Ticket With Him In Decisive Conquest

his campaign he asked voters to return a board of estimate favorable to him, saying he "could not endure another four years" with a hostile board of estimate majority.
LaGuardia is the first anti-Tammany mayor in the city's history since post-Revolutionary times to be re-elected. He carried all of New York's five boroughs.
The total vote was the highest ever cast in a purely local election—2,233,697 — and LaGuardia's vote was the largest ever given a mayoral candidate in New York.

Farley Disappointed
The result of the election was a disappointment to Postmaster General James A. Farley, national and New York state Democratic chairman, a generally unerring political strategist, who came home to assume personal command of the Mahoney campaign several weeks ago. He was aided by Governor Herbert H. Lehman, and United States Senators Robert F.
Wagner and Royal S. Copeland.

Although the election may have considerable effect upon Democratic party prestige locally, and may affect the future plans of Farley, the "New Deal" was not an issue, since both candidates professed allegiance to it.
President Roosevelt, personally friendly to LaGuardia, maintained a "hands off" attitude during the campaign, but lost no time after the outcome was certain in telephoning his congratulations to the mayor.
Fiery little LaGuardia in campaign excoriated Tammany and stressed "honest, efficient municipal administration." Mahoney, cool, reserved head of the A. A. U., a former judge and wealthy lawyer, stressed the "red issue" and accused LaGuardia of Communist leanings.
"Rendered Verdict"
LaGuardia, raised in the old southwest, and often proclaiming that he owes allegiance to no party and no man, said after his election:
"The people x x x have had four years of my kind of good government. They have rendered their verdict."
Mahoney said, after conceding defeat:
"The mass of people today is such a crowded city as New York are for a radical political philosophy (as LaGuardia's) and in addition to that a large number of our people have felt he had given an administration free from corruption."

Fairmont Home
Levy Is Defeated

ALLIANCE, Nov. 3.—Although receiving a majority vote in both Columbiana and Stark counties, a three-tenths mill tax levy for construction of a $125,000 school at the Fairmount Children's home, near here, apparently was defeated yesterday because it lacked the required 65 per cent of the total vote.
The issue was favored in Stark county, 13,154 to 11,458.

Notre Dame Popularity Better Since Win Over Gophers

By WILLIAM WEEKES
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Notre Dame's handsome red, brick stadium may be jammed to capacity for the first time Saturday when the Fighting Irish battle Pittsburgh's Panthers. And if it is, one of the reasons will be Andy Pupils' too.

Probably no one will head for South Bend just to see Handy Andy kick the football, but it was his place-kick which gave Notre Dame its 7 to 6 triumph over Minnesota last week, that stirred up possibility of a full house of 56,000 for Saturday. Pupils' calm, point-after-touchdown act gave Notre Dame its victory, and a victory over the powerful northern team was all that was needed to put Ticket Manager C. Arthur Haley and his assistant to a lot of enjoyable work.

Since the upset triumph over the mighty men of Minnesota, a rush of orders from those who believe that what Notre Dame did to the Gophers, it might be able to do to the undefeated Panthers, has kept Haley's department on the jump. The fact that Pittsburgh and the Irish will be playing the last game of their thrilling series, also has something to do with it.

The biggest previous crowd in the stadium, between 52,000 and 53,000, saw Southern California's Trojans come from away back yonder on Nov. 21, 1931, to wreck a perfect season for Notre Dame, by a 16 to 14 score.

Even more eager to square accounts for last year's 26 to 0 beating than he was to conquer Minnesota last week, Coach Elmer Layden started erecting a defense designed to put the brakes on Marshall (Biggie) Goldberg, Pitt's spectacular halfback, and the rest of the bone-crushing Panther offense. He also drilled the Irish on plays prepared for the Minnesota game which were not used when Notre Dame played defensive football after scoring in the first ten minutes.

Francis Schmidt who sends his Ohio State eleven against Indiana's battling Hoosiers in the standard game of the Big Ten title card, polished up the Buckeye razzle-dazzle offense. At Indiana, Bo McMillin looked over his reserves seeking replacements for Center George Miller who has a fractured thumb, and Halfback Bill Anderson, a fine passer, who may be out of the important struggle because of a shoulder injury.

Northwestern's backs were given a treatment for "fumbleitis" a glaring fault in last week's victory over Wisconsin, as Lynn Waldorf gave the Wildcats a long drill in preparation for Saturday's game with Illinois. The Illini varsity stopped Northwestern plays dead in a half-hour defensive scrimmage. Both Michigan and Chicago which tangle at Ann Arbor, concentrated on their offenses.

Most of Iowa's cripples were back in uniform for first heavy practice for its meeting with Minnesota. The Gophers still smarting over their loss to Notre Dame, went into their third straight week of secret drills. Wisconsin, which has an open date before tackling Purdue a week from Saturday, suffered a blow when it was learned that Erv Windward, senior quarterback, would be lost for the balance of the season because of a knee injury.

Cecil Isbell, spearhead of Purdue's attack, was excused from practice, but the work of Tony Juska, Tony Impolito and Leon De Witte, indicated the Boilermakers would be at top form for their intersectional contest with Fordham. Isbell, nursing a leg injury, probably will be ready for heavy duty by Saturday.

Bob Feller Splits In Series Profits As Birthday Gift

VAN METTER, Ia., Nov. 3.—Bob Feller had $443.63 added to his bank account today—a birthday "gift" from the world series players' split.

Boy pitching prodigy of the Cleveland Indians, Bob called his share of the fourth place money earned by the Indians a "mighty nice" present for his 19th birthday anniversary.

Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Feller, planned nothing elaborate today for their son's birthday celebration.

The young right-hander took his birthday in stride, helping with the chores as usual. He intends to stay here most of the winter, getting his arm in shape for the 1938 season.

Wrestling Returns To Salem

DUTCH SCHULTZ

Wrestling returns to Salem for the first time in recent years Friday when the Salem Knights of Pythias lodge sponsors a three-match card at the Memorial building.

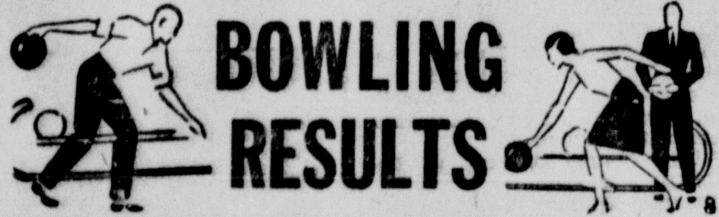

Local interest in the mat program centers around the first wrestling appearance in Salem of Frank (Toar) Julian, former Salem High school football player and state weight lifting champion, who entered the grappling game last summer.

Julian will meet Mike Kibbons of Oklahoma in a 30-minute, one fall preliminary match.

Nanjo Singh, husky Hindu, will tangle with Don Evans of Columbus in the main go, a 90-minute, two out of three falls affair.

The semi-final match will send Joe Banaski, ex-Oklahoma City cow puncher, against Dutch Schultz, the "Texas Torpedo".

The card was arranged by Bill Roebusch, who tutored Julian in weight lifting. The first match will start promptly at 8:15 p. m.

BOWLING RESULTS

Charlie Wernet led the National league's onslaught on the pins at the Masonic temple alleys last night, rolling games of 216, 244, 171 for a 631 series.

No change was made in the first three positions in the loop standings, but the fourth place berth was taken over by the Masons, who won two out of three games from Mullins Manufacturers.

Mullins Foremen continued to hold first place by defeating Douth's Service Station in two of three games, while the Salem News and Bunn's Shoes won three games to remain in a tie for second.

Three teams were tied for first place after City Duckpin league activity at the Grate Recreation alleys last night. The deadlocked teams are Bliss, Pottery No. 1 and Colonial Billiards.

DEATHS

DAVID DOUGLASS

Mrs. Mary Kyser of West Sixth st., has received word of the death of her brother, David Douglass of Marion, formerly of Columbiana.

Mr. Douglass, son of the late John and Eliza Douglass, was born in Columbiana May 15, 1852, and spent his early life there.

When he was a young man he was employed in the west and later was postmaster for several years at Wyandotte, going from there to Marion. He was employed in the Marion silk mills until about 15 years ago, when he retired.
